Reflexology Improvers

Course Description:

Explore the powerful ancient Chinese therapy of reflexology where you can access the wellbeing of the whole body through the reflexes of the feet, hands and ears. It is a wonderfully relaxing therapy that is beneficial for stress relief, restoring balance, hormone regulation, energy boosting and many other conditions. This 4-session course provides a fun and interactive comprehensive introduction to hand and foot reflexology. If you have completed the introduction course you will build your knowledge and skills on this course.

You will learn how to massage the feet and hands to perform relaxation and pressure techniques and gain knowledge of reflex points for overall well being.

Participants will explore the theory behind reflexology, the history, understand the benefits, the theories of why it works, learn the anatomy of the reflex points, and practice hands-on techniques. The course is designed for beginners and aims to build foundational skills to use reflexology for relaxation and general well-being for self-care and for friends and family.

Session 1: Understand the basic principles of reflexology, learn the benefits and limitations of reflexology and explore the anatomy of the hands and feet related to reflexology. Learn how the reflex points connect to organs and map the hands and feet. You will practice relaxation techniques for the hands, opening the reflexes and specific techniques. Develop a deeper understanding and knowledge.

Session 2: Gain confidence in applying reflexology to the hands and understand specific reflex points and their functions. You will learn about the zones linked to stress relief and digestion, thumb walking and pressure techniques and start practicing a step-by-step hand reflexology routine. Practice to develop the skills.

Session 3: Learn foot reflexology techniques and identify key reflex zones on the feet. You will learn about the zones connected to respiratory, nervous, and circulatory systems and add to your knowledge of practical techniques and how to adjust pressure for different sensitivity levels. Expand your experience and knowledge further.

Session 4: Learn to combine hand and foot reflexology techniques into a cohesive session and how to adapt reflexology routines for different needs. Learn about how the body reacts to holistic treatments and contractions. You will practice a whole routine, ideally with a partner. Gain more confidence in reflexology.
